ABLE MAN DEAD.

Judge Ben F. Buckner, former circuit court judge of the Fayette district, but of late years a prominent attorney at the Louisville bar, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Goff, in Winchester, on Monday.

Judge Buckner was an able but rather peculiar man, and had been in poor health or some time.

BEWARE OF A COUGH.

A cough is not a disease, but a symptom. Consumption and bronchitis, which are the most dangerous and fatal diseases, have for their first indication a persistent cough, and if properly treated as soon as this cough appears are easily cured. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has proven wonderfully successful, and gained its wide reputation and extensive sale by its success in curing the diseases which cause coughing. If it is not beneficial it will not cost you a cent. For sale by J. W. Gayle and South & Longmoor, druggists.

FORGOT TO RETURN IT.

A man by the name of Henry Kelly borrowed a horse on Monday (county court day), came to town and was taken with the swapping fever in Jockey Alley, and sold the horse. The owner did not like that way of disposing of his horse, and had Kelly arrested and lodged in jail.

Sound advice to those who have kidney and bladder troubles, is to take a safe, sure medicine like Foley's Kidney Cure. It always benefits the kidneys. South & Longmoor and W. McKee Hardie.

SAD DEATH.

We regret very much to announce the sudden death of Mrs. Anna Browinski Wright, wife of Rev. Julius E. Wright, Presiding Elder of the Shelbyville District, M. E. Church, South (but formerly of this city). Mrs. Wright died from the effects of an operation at Norton Infirmary, in Louisville, on Tuesday.

We tender our sincerest sympathy to our friend in his deep sorrow.

"Our little girl was unconscious from strangulation during a sudden and terrible attack of croup. I quickly secured a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure, giving her three doses. The croup was mastered and our little darling speedily recovered," so writes A. L. Spafford, Chester, Mich. South & Longmoor and W. McKee Hardie.

TERRIBLE CONFLAGRATION.

The city of Jacksonville, Fla., was almost wiped out by fire on Saturday last.

About 100 blocks of houses, both business and dwelling, were burned, leaving about 12,000 people homeless.

The loss amounted to about $10,000,000.

With the usual generosity of the American people assistance is being given from all sections of the country.

Queen and Empress Victoria by Robt. C. V. Myers, is an interesting and valuable work. I commend it to all readers and families as a safe and profitable investment. Mr. Thos. C. Newbold, who is introducing it in our midst, is worthy of your confidence and patronage. EDITOR.

LOW RATES TO THE PAN-AMERICAN EXPOSITION.

Via Queen & Crescent Route. Double Daily Service. Finest trains in the South. Consult ticket agents for rates and full information.

A CASE FOR THE POLICE.

There is a crowd of boys who collect nightly at the corner of Fourth and Steele streets, South Side, and make themselves nuisances generally to the residents of that section. They have gone so far as to stone the houses of some of the good people living there, frightening ladies and children.

This is a case demanding the interference of the police before further trouble arises. Patience some times ceases to be a virtue, and the residents may take the matter in hand and a dose of lead be administered.
